

As a citizen of the USA and of Indiana I feel that eliminating the no call restrictions is a violation of my personal rights. If I wish to do business with a company I will contact them. The calls by these companies invade my privacy and I ask that you uphold the restriction of telephone soliciting as it stands and maintain my individual rights.